A world of strife shut out,
A world of love shut in.*

Piety

A beautiful, commodious place of worship

*Grow old along with me!
The best is yet to be,
The last of life, for which the first was made.*

The Rosa Coplon Jewish Old Folks Home

devotes itself to making

"the last of life"

a happy, restful, wholesome life for those aged men and women of this Jewish community who need a comfortable home, adequate care, freedom from mundane worries, genial companionship—in short, love!

Herein are pictures taken of the daily life in this haven of rest, this haven of refuge from the rigors of the everyday world.

Study them—note the contentment and full-heartedness of these venerable men and women—visit the Home, 310 North Street, and see these and other soul-warming sights for yourself.

Then lend a hand to the support of this worthy cause!
