

B U F F A L O
CELEBRATES THE
THREE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF
THE SETTLEMENT OF JEWS IN THE UNITED STATES

SUNDAY EVENING, OCTOBER TWENTY-FOURTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-FOUR
EIGHT-THIRTY AT KLEINHANS MUSIC HALL

IN SEPTEMBER 1654 there landed on Manhattan Island 23 Jews seeking religious and civic freedom. They were the first group of Jewish settlers in the land that was to become the United States of America. The right to citizenship which they established, the right to worship as Jews in the congregation they brought into being in that first year, their identification from the beginning with the opportunities and responsibilities of freedom in this land, and the record through three centuries of the Jews of America, will be commemorated in the Tercentenary celebration. The observance will continue until April 1955.
