HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

MARCH 19, 1978 - a double event - a PURIM and BIRTHDAY PARTY. Fifteen residents whose birth date is March will be honored. We will be privileged to enjoy a beautiful hour of nostalgic Yiddish, Hebrew and English melodies under the co-directorship of May Heusler and Esther Sunshine. The narrator is Mrs. Belle Samuels, all members of the Jewish Liberal Arts Club, to whom we are extremely grateful. Purim refreshments will be served. We hope to see you there. Lois Schwartz is Program Chairman, Molly Eisen and Fanny Sapowich are in charge of refreshments. Miss Rose Gelman is in charge of flowers.

SOMETHING NEW HAS BEEN ADDED!

Like my granddaughters who eat around the cake and leave the frosting for last, I have kept this particular bit of news as the final item of interest for this month.

Unlike a half century ago, when 98% of the residents of the Rosa Coplon Jewish Home and Infirmary spoke no other language but Yiddish, now about 2% will resort to Yiddish among themselves, only when groping for an illusive translation of a word or phrase. At one time, the Women's League supplied the residents with twelve subscriptions to Yiddish papers. At present about a third of the subscriptions suffice. They rely on TV and English papers for daily news. Yet when you speak to these people and you happen to use a Yiddish expression, they immediately beset you with questions - "Where did you learn to speak Yiddish?" "Were you born in the Old Country.?" "How nice!"

It was because of the thoughtful suggestion of Patricia McCormick, Activities Director of the HOME that efforts are being made to revive Yiddish. Although Pat is not Jewish, her involvement with the residents is keeping her alert to their needs and interests and she feels that this outlet will serve to stimulate them and fill a void. Acting upon suggestion, she has asked Mrs. Bea Leib, president of the Women's League, who has an excellent command of the Yiddish language and is an all-around knowledgeable person, to head a Yiddish Discussion Group. Attendance-wise, the first meeting was not too successful, but those who attended were enthused, interested and are anticipating the next session to challenge all newcomers.

Our congratulations to all those involved in this project and we hope it will produce the results each one desires. Good Luck. WATCH YOUR BULLETIN BOARD FOR THE NEXT MEETINGS.
